

Job Description - Specialist for Residence Life

Position Summary

Specialist for Residence Life is required to develop and manages residence activity and programs; Promoting healthy lifestyle in Residence Halls; Serving as the contact person with Kean University USA; and taking night shifts and responding to emergency cases.

Qualifications

Master's degree from an accredited university; two years of progressive professional experience in student services. Candidate must have excellent oral and written communication skills, coordination skills, service orientated, and be fluent in English; Oversea working/study experience is preferred; Membership in Chinese Communist Party is preferred.

Application

Please fulfill the “Wenzhou-Kean University Application Form” (attached) and send the form/ the scanned copy of ID card, Graduate certificates and Official transcripts for all degrees, personal achievements and other required professional certificates to Staff-B-hiring@wku.edu.cn.

Please notice that overseas degree and certification should be approved by Chinese Ministry of Education. Also, your email subject and application form should be named as” your name + application position”. The Candidates can only apply for one position. Candidacy review begins immediately and continues until appointment is made.